Army Sustainment: The Sustainment Warfighting Function

Midwest Journal of Political Science.

Army Sustainment: The New FM 1

. This manual defines the Army-standard requirements for individual weapons qualification and establishes those qualifications as prerequisites for continued training for either specific capability certification or collective live-fire training.

Army Sustainment: The Sustainment Warfighting Function

For this purpose, the field intelligence units designated the captured troops as Blacks with the strongest commitment to Azad Hind; Greys with varying commitment but also with enticing circumstances that led them to join the INA; and Whites, those who were pressured into joining the INA under the circumstances but with no commitment to Azad Hind, INA, or Bose. . Eventually the Air Forces obtained 40 percent of all WAACs in the Army.

Theater (warfare)

These training strategies are not all inclusive, but it focuses on the areas that will enable leaders and units to build and preserve readiness.

Normandy

This can be seen as a variant of the war of attrition strategy, where the defender—out of necessity—had to hold the aggressor at a semi-static defensive line, rather than falling back in the face of superior numbers. These reports were received from short-wave radio, decoded, and made available to those responsible for planning the invasion of France. The Japanese empire of conquest was cut in two and the volume of sea traffic between Japan and the southern regions was reduced to a mere trickle.
