The Rev. Arthur Tooth, vicar of St. James's, Hatcham, appears » 23 Dec 1876 » The Spectator Archive

His unique works, which caused a scandal in the 1940s, are figures and landscapes which are sympathetically characterised by the organic substances of their creation. The jubilee of his release from prison was celebrated at the Church House, Westminster, on February 17, 1929, when the speakers included Lord Shaftesbury, who was chairman, Lord Halifax, and others.
