I think I will go in and see who lives here. The illustrations in this book are engaging for children and there is a lot for them to look at on the pages. Then the Little Wee Bear looked at his, and there was the spoon in the porridge-bowl, but the porridge was all gone! It is an interesting if a little flawed take on a classic tale and is good for a read or two but I can't see it becoming a favorite in many households.
