IBA

Following the review, the Committee adopts concluding observations, which include final remarks and recommendations from the review, and may request that the state party submit a follow-up report or information on select areas. In addition, the Act formalized the jurisdictions of each committee, thus helping to consolidate or eliminate several committees and minimize conflicts between similar House and Senate committees.

The Official Information Services

The frustration and marginalization of black students prompted the formation of Swarthmore Afro-American Student Society SASS in 1965 by black student leader Sam Shepherd. Joint Chiefs of Staff, The History of the Joint Chiefs of Staff: The Joint Chiefs of Staff and the War in Vietnam, 1960—1968, Part III. New York: Rinehart and Winston, 1971.

Review Committee on Overseas Representation (Duncan Committee): Records

Its next review is yet to be scheduled. The declassification review of other records is going forward in accordance with the provisions of Executive Orders 12958 and 13142, under which all records over 25 years old, except file series exemptions requested by agencies and approved by the President, should be reviewed for declassification by 2003. National Focal Points play a critical role in the timely sharing of information, but their limited authority and status often lead to delays in notification.

OHCHR

This tabular-based report analyses 13 jurisdictions.

Week 7: Consuls & Unconventional Residential Diplomacy

Memos to the President, Meeting Notes File, and National Security Council Meetings File all provided records of key decisions. Discuss the concepts of 'diplomatic relations' and 'breach of diplomatic relations' 4. Following his statement thirty-five of the forty-five black students present staged a walkout.

International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination (CERD)

To comply with the review process, each state party must submit a report to the Committee every two years on steps taken to implement the Convention, but, in practice, reports are often combined and reviewed every four or more years. Why did consular and diplomatic services, which were usually separate in the 19th century, merge in the course of the 20th? I have always been impressed by the ability of the Opposition to make bricks without straw, other than a sight of the Statement, which may or may not contain much information. House of Representatives, Record Group 233; National Archives, Washington, DC.

Agenda Items: Overview

There are, after all, many experts here on the various aspects of foreign affairs with which the Report deals, and it is conceivable that their combined wisdom may be of some value to the Government before it finally makes up its mind on what to do about the Duncan Report. Having read the Report, I must say that I am very impressed by the rapidity and thoroughness of the work.
