The Quest for Corvo an Experiment in Biography (penguin Classics) Symons

I wanted to include that line, which I found absolutely musical. The life of Baron Corvo would make an absolutely fabulous film.

Someone should send a very uncouth letter to whoever typeset this, because it's misanthropically done. Chris Offutt, though, experienced first-hand life with The Difficult Writer: his father was a Rolfe-like pornographer and science-fiction writer named Andrew Offutt, who wrote under the alias John Cleve. .

The Quest for Corvo: An Experiment in Biography by A.J.A. Symons, Paperback

Unfortunately for Rolfe who fancifully referred to himself as Baron Corvo, presumably from a grant of the title from a one-time English-Italian Duchess benefactor, the majority of these works never saw print, and his total income from them over the years amounted to less than 200 pounds. What surprised me the most was how Symons' love for Corvo's writing is infectious.
