Contemporary Art in Benin: A History in Ten Artists

The 'Benin Bronzes' made of brass and bronze are a group of sculptures which include elaborately decorated cast plaques, commemorative heads, animal and human figures, items of royal regalia, and personal ornaments. Pectorals, hip and waist ornaments in the shape of human or animal heads were worn either by the oba or by major dignitaries.

Today, all of the royal altars stand together in a single courtyard. The Obas of Benin amassed great wealth by controlling trade routes reaching from the river Niger in the East to the western border with the kingdom of Dahomey. This political and commercial movement developed into the territorial land-grab known as the 'Scramble for Africa'.
