

Reconstruction - a documentary history of the South after the war : 1865-1877

Capricorn Books - The Reconstruction A Documentary History Of The South After The War 1865

Description: -

-

Paper industry.

International Paper Company.

Nicaragua

Canals

Reconstruction
Reconstruction - a documentary history of the South after the war : 1865-1877

-Reconstruction - a documentary history of the South after the war : 1865-1877

Notes: Gift of August C. Radke family.

This edition was published in 1963

Filesize: 69.75 MB

Tags: #10 #Facts #about #Reconstruction

Reconstruction (1865)

However, the more moderate Republican majority in Congress favored working with President Johnson to modify his Reconstruction measures. Their ministers had powerful political roles that were distinctive since they did not depend on White support, in contrast to teachers, politicians, businessmen, and tenant farmers.

Reconstruction (1865)

There was no conspiracy to use Reconstruction to impose any such unified economic policy on the nation. However, Congress refused to count any of the votes from Louisiana, Arkansas, and Tennessee, in essence rejecting Lincoln's moderate Reconstruction plan.

Reconstruction era

Grant's Justice Department destroyed the Ku Klux Klan, but during both of his terms, Blacks lost their political strength in the. Red Shirts prevented almost all Black voting in two majority-Black counties.

The Reconstruction: A Documentary History of the South...

Some supported armed attacks to suppress Blacks. State revenues came from fees and from sales taxes on slave auctions.

Related Books

- Buzzy Bears Busy Day
- Réponse en forme de dissertation à un théologien sur les sentiments des sceptiques
- Borodino - dokumenty, pis'ma, vospominaniia. \[1812-1962.
- Antologia da poesia paulista
- Second generation Integrated Composite Analyzer \(ICAN\) computer code