Anti

The Cold War against Russian imperialism was clearly a unified policy of the bourgeoisie. Indeed, if it first, recognizes the western borders of Germany and, secondly, adds a guarantee of them by the United Kingdom and Italy, it leaves aside the eastern borders of the Reich because of the German determination to refuse to give up getting their revision, revision which can only be achieved at the expense of allies of France.

Other nations could learn from Germany's efforts to reconcile after WWII

This fear requires the full implementation of the Treaty of Versailles, the occupation of the Ruhr in 1923 and the refusal to disarm as was asked by the Americans and the British.

Germans prepare to protest Versailles Treaty terms

Bavaria supplied 30,000 troops for the , of which very few returned.

Europe's Slide to War, 1911

Hitler then began planning to attack Poland, recognizing that this could lead to war with France and Great Britain. Anti-German torchlight parades erupted, and on 11 January 1912 Caillaux's government fell. But France remained exhausted and in no mood for a rerun of 1914—18.
