It contains articles on musicological research of international importance in five different languages English, French, German, Italian, and Spanish and is published biannually June and December by Bärenreiter-Verlag. Together, these comprise the most important collection of polyphonic music before the celebrated School of Notre Dame. Karp's commentary in Volume One, along with an edition of the music in Volume Two, offers a new set principles for the understanding of its harmony, rhythm, notation, and text underlay.
