Coincidence Quotes (153 quotes)

We always seem to have one lost soul who wakes up before the others, desperately peeping and hoping for an answer. When presented with an array of shapes, colors, or dots, our brain tries to find a recognizable image. Here, on the east coast of Sweden, it's the arrival of the first Northern Lapwings and Barnacle Geese that signal spring.

This coincides with what he told us; Their tastes in music coincide. We are interested in how things start and end, appreciate clever plots and resolutions, and resonate with archetypal portrayals of heroes and villains. But my favorite sign is the sight and sound of Sandhill Cranes, flying in formation so high in the sky that you can just see them as little black dots, but their wild call echoes for long distances as they wing their way north from winter quarters to summer habitat.

Coincidence: Alignments of random points

Let's see if between us we can compile a list of what we look for as the first sign that Spring is actually here. He is often referred to as the Almighty Genesis 17:1; Exodus 6:3; Job 13:3, a name denoting unrestricted power and absolute dominion. Some years later, in 1884, the yawl, Mignonette, foundered, with only four survivors, who were in an open boat for many days.
