Lammas in 2021/2022

Everyone here gets the chance to be the subject of the narration. I did not re-read The Waiting Sands this time.

Waiting Sands by Susan Howatch

Multiple POV by every single main characters, Suspenseful ending even if its quite tame by current standards, lots of melodrama of he-said she-said, The Manor and the Moors could have used a bit more exploring and description by heroine.

And when I say everyone I do mean everyone - even the cat gets a chance to tell the story. History of Lammas Since the dawn of civilization, grain has been very important to mankind. Decima had been hauled around Europe by her promiscuous mother as a child and had found moving to her father's remote home in Scotland a great relief when her mother died.

The Dark Shore by Susan Howatch

After a number of failed Allied attacks, the Germans reached the coast, effectively cutting Allied forces in half, with the French army to the south, and British Expeditionary Forces and Belgian troops to the north. Bem, a véspera do aniversário da bruxa chega, os convidados chegam e ela desaparece com a lancha em companhia de Rohan até este ponto muitas brigas e diálogos agressivos tiveram lugar entre todos os personagens, sugestões foram feitas, conversas escutadas por detrás de portas e por aí afora, com a pobre Rachel sem saber em quem acreditar. Spine creases, wear to binding and pages from reading.

Jane Shaw - a character from The Devil on Lammas Night The cover for the pretty obscure audiobook of this equally obscure book I listened to at the gym said it was approximately six hours long but boy did it seem longer! Thus Christ-Mass implies that season when the incarnation and birth of Christ, are commemorated in the Mass. . The Women's Home Guard, southern England, 1941.
