Dufferin

The time has arrived, and sitting on our hands and exercising a complicit silence can no longer be the norm if Catholic schools in Ontario are to viably speak to its students and teachers and remain authentic to the gospel mandate to love. Not just specifically about mental health, about all of the efforts to support students. Retrieved on May 20, 2013.

In Ontario, Catholic Teachers Pave the Way for LGBTQ Inclusion

Interaction may take the form of individual counselling, behaviour management, social or life skill instruction, group involvement, activity involving sport, drama, or music, or in-class academic and social support.

In Ontario, Catholic Teachers Pave the Way for LGBTQ Inclusion

I used it in all my classes and the Religious Education superintendent spoke to my school encouraging the issue.
