A Thousand Plateaus — University of Minnesota Press

Not only does grass grow in the middle of things but it grows itself through the middle.

Postmodern Theory

Even within the cluster of branches that make up Plato, there are a bunch of primary ideas and secondary ideas. At this point, Lacan decided the best course of action was to liquor up Guattari at a fancy restaurant so he could spill the beans on the new book.

Deleuze and Guattari

The map does not reproduce an unconscious closed contact with the real.

Deleuze and Guattari: 'Minor Literature'

In true post-structuralist form, Deleuze and Guattari argue that a territorialized language can undergo a process of deterritorialization through a rejection of the concept of words as signifiers. The rhizome is reducible to neither the One or the multiple. For we cannot live without form, without intelligibility.
