After the consecration the priest lifts the bread and wine in another action of offering. Lift up your heads, O gates, And lift them up, O ancient doors, That the King of glory may come in! Be lifted, you ancient doors, so that the king of glory may come in. When the gifts are brought forward in procession, the second offering is being made.

Lift Up Your Hearts / Behold the Glory of God (AOV 1/156)

David certainly had reason to be discouraged and troubled by the turn of events he now found himself in. Let us lift up our hearts and our hands to God in heaven: Let us lift up our heart with our hands to God in the heavens. For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul? Contributed to the Harrow School Hymn Book, 1881, from which it has passed into several later collections, including The Public School Hymn Book, 1903, The English Hymnal, 1906, and others.

Lift Up Your Heart: A Guide to Spiritual Peace by Fulton J. Sheen

The first offering we make is in the Penitential Act at the beginning of Mass.

Lift Up Your Hearts Virtual Conference

Not as folksy like Bishop Sheen when he gave his homilies on TV and radio in the past, this is deep thinking for serious thought.

Lift Up Your Heart: A 10

A prolific writer, Archbishop Sheen authored two weekly syndicated newspaper columns that ran for nearly two decades as well as books including, The Cross and the Beatitudes: Lessons on Love and Forgiveness, Peace of Soul, and From the Angel's Blackboard: The Best of Fulton

J. We must become mature in this adult faith, we must guide the flock of Christ to this faith. Lift up your gates, ye princes; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the king of glory shall come in.
