The office will inform the of the loss. While the answers are actually usually yes with a little bit of adapting , one of the best things you can do is just box up all your 110v items what we use in the US and not even have the worry of something accidentally being that one item that is NOT dual voltage. If traveling with prescription medication, check with the to ensure the medication is legal in Germany.

Again, if caught without this if driving outside of Germany, be ready to pay a lot of money in fines. If you are driving, check whether a bicyclist is approaching from either direction before attempting to enter side streets, even when the light is in your favor. Credible information indicates terrorist groups continue plotting possible attacks in Europe.
