Steel places TEMPO in the context of its place and time, as well as its readers--the movers and shakers within Indonesian society. I am so thankful for someone like Janet Steel who did what it took to learn this story and tell it. May show signs of minor shelf wear and contain limited notes and highlighting.

In 2003 she was awarded a Fulbright Senior Specialist grant in communication and journalism at the Institute for the Study of the Free Flow of Information in Jakarta. Not easily influenced by capitalism or feared by authority.

Janet Steele Wars Within, The Story of Tempo, an Independent Magazine in Soeharto 's Indonesia

This book told about the struggle of Gunawan Mohammad to bring Tempo Magazine's position into new alternative media under military scrutiny. Steele was able to closely observe the revived journal's editorial process--a very useful window to how the process works within a developing nation which is the world's largest Muslim country. .
