A Genealogy of Literal Translation in Modern Japan

Ketika nilai-nilai tersebut tidak diakui maka manusia akan marah, dan ketika dia merasa tidak pantas dalam menjalani nilai-nilainya maka dia akan menjadi malu, seperti penilaian yang tepat terhadap nilai kebanggaan. Kaitan Antara Thumos dan Ideologi Mishima Keinginan untuk pengakuan bersumber dari dua hal yaitu: agama atau religi dan nasionalisme.

The Temple of the Golden Pavilion

Manusia juga menginginkan pengakuan terhadap nilai-nilai mereka atau nilai-nilai yang mereka percayai.

The Temple of the Golden Pavilion

Admittedly, it was the avant-garde literature of the time that benefited most from literal translations of Western literature. Tuy nhin, m c d dng tm miu t mt cuc i y nhng gian kh, anh ta vn ni vi mt ging nh th l anh ta ang k cho chng ti nghe nhng trun v mt cuc i xa hoa cc.

Mishima percaya bahwa degradasi moral yang ia rasakan di dalam masyarakat Jepang sehabis perang diakibatkan oleh pengingkaran status kedewaan Kaisar Hirohito karena tekanan dari Amerika Serikat dan sekutunya. In 1968, Mishima wrote a play titled , Waga tomo Hittorā , in which he depicted the historical figures of , , and as mouthpieces to express his own views on fascism and beauty. Amerika dianggap telah membebaskan Jepang dari militerisme dan mendorong Jepang ke arah demokrasi yang dianggap lebih baik.

Kim Các Tự (Kinkakuji)

The main pavilion is covered in gold leaf and shimmers in front of a pond - kyoko-chi Mirror Pond. Mishima had it published as a keepsake to remember him by, as he assumed that he would die in the war. Kata ini juga digunakan sebagai konsep untuk mengekspresikan keinginan dan keberanian manusia untuk diakui.
