Four Seasons Hotel George V

Plumb often follows a pattern of painting a portrait of the relevant George frequently focusing more on their personal lives and character. O Plumb provides the ages with a classic account of the four Hannover kings, their foibles and their legacy. However, if you want a relatively brief, to the point, and sometimes poignant description of these four monarchs, this is the place to turn.

Four Seasons Hotel George V

He thoroughly covers his topics, applies sophisticated historic practices to his research and always manages to put a well-supported twist to conventional interpretations. This is a very warts and all inclusive sort of analysis and history has not proved to be in awe of the four gentleman nor their appearance nor their decisions. He brings the great 18th Century personalities to life: Walpole and Swift, Bolingbroke and Mary Wortley Montagu, the Old Pretender, Bonnie Prince Charlie, and the four King Georges.

Their Just America is far from just one thing. It has probably been overtaken by more recent research but it has never gone out of print, simply because it is so readable and entertaining. In so doing, Plumb frequently sidelines the Georges themselves in favour of important contemporary politicians who shaped the character of each George's era.
