Privacy & Policy

You do not have the right of shedding your bloods and offending to your reputations till the time of visiting God. Quran, 2:256 In the area of privacy, although Islam determined individual obligations in the path of perfections and elevation for human beings, it has no interference in what they do in their privacy. In more general terms, for the Sunnis inām is also whoever leads prayer.

The Basis of Privacy Right in Islam

IslamicFinder and its services do not own any of this data and use renowned Islamic Organizations as a resource to provide our users with authentic dates. A recent phenomenon is that of the issuing of fatwa by institutions independent from the states, such as the European Council for Fatwa, or by specialized websites.

Religious Authorities in Islam

This is in obvious contrast with the policies of Islam that are after the promotion of people of the society public unity and the stability of their relations.

The Realm of Privacy in Islam

An obvious instance of this principle is the freedom of having opinions on Islam. Of course, the results of faultfinding are not limited to the heavenly punishments and its effect in this world for faultfinders is public disgracing and appearing of their faults. At any point in time, our users can opt-out of these third-party tracking services by switching to the analytics services that we offer in our Athan settings or use the IslamicFinder.
