How will the new normal look like for the cruise ship crew?

Key considerations will likely include the availability of new prevention and mitigation measures, such as testing, treatments and, ultimately, the introduction of an effective vaccine. This will most likely be at the crew member's coast, just like the medical exam.

Cruise industry

We've worked very hard with all of our cruise partners, and now it's time to get our cruise business back and running. Some crew recreation areas will be closed to limit social gatherings until further notice.

Travel Weekly: New Wave of Attacks on the Cruise

THE MANAGING EDITOR IS ALSO RIDING ALONG. The cruise industry would like to place those ship back to sailing and crew members as well would like to return to work, but working aboard ship was quite the hard work and lifestyle prior to COVID 19 and it takes crew to get to have those ships sail and function and crew are humans who also have needs and basic human rights.

11 Ways the Cruise Industry Will Change in 2021

ON BOARD VOLUNTEERS ALONG WITH CDC OFFICIALS THEY ARE TRYING OUT SOME OF THE NEW CHANGES MADE TO HANDLE COVID. Please note: the Email you provide must be the one that is associated with your profile.
