Presenting Lily Mars (1943)

She follows him to New York and worms her way into his show, and his heart.

Which Presenting Lily Mars Character Are You?

Once everyone has made all of their selections, we will reveal exactly their character. Judy Garland stars as a small-town girl with big-city dreams who heads to Broadway and--despite many disappointments and much hard work--stardom in Presenting Lily Mars.

After years of struggling in New York, Lily Mars Garland finally lands and job as understudy to the star of a Broadway show produced by the man she has come to love, John Thornway Academy Award winner Van Heflin. Perhaps not the most emotional or original of Garland's screen moments, but this is a cute film. Garland looks heavenly in this, and those songs with Bob Crosby and His Orchestra are a pure delight.
