How to Apply for U.S. Citizenship

The nationality status of a person born in an unincorporated is not specifically mentioned by law, but under international law and Supreme Court dicta, they are also regarded as non-citizen. A swelling number of Israelis are flying to the United States, armed with tattered United States high school diplomas and faded marriage certificates, to try to tap into an obscure clause in United States immigration law that enables some grandparents to pass citizenship to their grandchildren. At least two Republican lawmakers think so, arguing the forthcoming Congressional reapportionment should not be swayed by illegal immigrants, who whose numbers will give more seats to certain states.
