On The Art and Life of Jeffrey Catherine Jones < CrimeReads

Publisher: Salem : Printed for the Essex Institute, 1881. I am proposing the establishment of a third. I could not possibly learn the very right of it; but my master he hath been in a vast big passion, and so was Madam Western, and I heard her say, as she went out of doors into her chair, that she would never set her foot in master's house again.

The life and services to literature of Jones Very : a memorial meeting, Tuesday, Dec. 14, 1880. (Book, 1881) [mikhmon.us.to]

During this period he purchased his ticket to the ascetic train which was to carry him to the end of line, the eventual obliteration of self and immersion in the will of God.

Jones Very

He had no airs and graces. By age 45, he had retired. You can pick it up in a few hours.
