As these are old books, we processed each page manually and make them readable but in some cases some pages are blur or missing or black spots. Of the subsequent history of the English Prayer-Book this is not the place to treat at any length. The text used here is from a reprint, The First and Second Prayer-Books of Edward VI, published in 1910 as part of Everyman's Library.

The 1549 Book of Common Prayer

During the second year of Edward VI the divines were engaged upon their task; and, as we have seen, the new English services were tried at St.
