Participant Bios

Akwugo Emejulu and Leah Bassel. If there is an experience of human maturity, it is precisely this possibility of placing ourselves in the past, of approaching the past as if it were near, a part of ourselves. This is more ideological assertion than careful history, however.

Philosophers, Activists, and Radicals: A Story of Human Rights and Other Scandals

The Modi government continued its widespread practice of harassing and sometimes prosecuting outspoken human rights defenders, and journalists for criticizing government officials and policies.

Silencing Human Rights

Additionally, the report finds that these amendments would halt, and potentially reverse, the worldwide trend toward adoption and enforcement of anti-bribery measures, thus compromising the global fight against corruption. Women of colour's activism under austerity 3.

'Silent Dilemma' of Transitional Justice: Silencing and Coming to Terms with the Past in Serbia

The author proposes rethinking international law as a terrain for political and economic struggle rather than as a normative or technical substitute for political choice, itself indifferent to natural flows of economic activity. Amid in the claim process, the court stayed the eviction temporarily. For example, barely one month after University of Toronto Vice-Provost Misak made her comments in defense of free speech, the institution forced a student-sponsored panel on Palestine and free speech to relocate just hours before the event.

Philosophers, Activists, and Radicals: A Story of Human Rights and Other Scandals

At best, the effort to reach practical agreement was a method to provoke, to force open a more vital debate about the foundations too.
