10 Handy Tips On How To Make Your Teenager Responsible

When a pastor reminds me that I am sitting in a pew that someone before me paid for, in a building that was funded by people I may not have even met, I am humbled and reminded that I can have that kind of impact on those who will follow me. Keep prewritten emails, letters, and informative documents on hand to use when the time comes. When you run out of cash, you simply turn to your credit cards without considering whether you can afford to pay the balance.
