Branches of the U.S. Government

The legislative powers of the United States Congress are explicitly stated in the Constitution. Developing a Christian view of government is difficult since the Bible does not provide an exhaustive treatment of government.

America's Founding Documents

A Christian view of government also recognizes the need to limit the influence of sin in society.

Christian View of Government and Law

That remains the case today, as the United States struggles with a pandemic and economic recession. The Bible amply documents the dangers that ensued when power was transferred to a single king. Instead, it would coordinate with foreign courts such as those of the E.

About Our Government

In danger, surround him and our country with Your angel protection. From 1999 to 2010, the number of contractors hired by the more than doubled.
