CHARITIES The almshouses originally erected in 1630 by Edward Wilkes, and endowed under the will of his son Matthew Wilkes, 1692, consist of ten houses occupied by ten widows. The artefacts they can interact with-the stone-built stables for the quarry horses, plus real old trains and other machinery, supplemented by old photos will provide stimulating input for a wide variety of curriculum topics. Pupils will still be taught by staff via live and pre-recorded sessions as stated in the school's remote learning policy.
