Client Initially, some of the consultants found it challenging to make the shift from being a leader to facilitating the leadership of others. Proposed actions The JHN recently adopted its constitution and has as one of its first goals to pilot an inclusionary neighbourhood project. ICC is the only program of its kind, focused on teaching small businesses in economically-distressed areas how to raise capital and facilitate connections with interested investors.

Johannesburg Homeless Network

We are also looking for volunteers - can you help? We have a 9 acre site with a large farmhouse and friendly animals to interact with. The Linden group, called Fountains for the Thirsty, holds regular soup kitchens for the homeless.

Work Experience in the public and voluntary sectors

The winners provide an impressive range of services and initiatives.

We also have good coverage in Islington, would love to chat about how we can support your primary care network to access a whole population, cross borough social prescribing in Islington. We also recognise that working unpaid carers often have additional needs and so we want to work in partnership with employers to enable them to fully support their employees in their caring role. The programme gave people the opportunity and time to stop and think, mobilise their own capabilities, and to start doing some of the sense-making around the complexity of what was going on in their organisation to find longer-term solutions.
