The Joint Strategic Plan will provide the overall framework for the preparation of more detailed local plans for each of the South Essex Local Authority areas, including the Southend New Local Plan. Wotton under Edge Town Hall, Market Street Saturday 21 st October, 9.

Local Plan Review Live Twitter Q&A 17th September 2015

Q: Why does the Plan take so long to produce? Regularly meet and review your plan Make it a priority for city leaders and officials to meet and review the city disaster management plan that should already be in place. However, some policies could be carried over from these older plans, especially the Southend Central Area Action Plan, was adopted in 2018. If citizens know what government emergency services can and cannot do for them, they are more likely to have realistic expectations and to take some personal responsibility in their own emergency planning and preparation.

The Development Management team does already work with developers at the planning application stage to ensure that these climate related issues are well considered, however we aim to sharpen the policies that they can use in these negotiations as part of the review wherever we can where national policy guidance will allow. After the Plan is finally approved, will it remain untouched until 2038? No other personal information will be published.
