Of course, technology assessment 30 years into the future has some irreducible uncertainties, but there are lessons we can learn. Under this new policy, the energy demand and supply is expected to be implemented in a sustainable way to achieve the needed balance between economic development, social development and eco-friendly protection. Today's is responsible for the UK safety regulation of nuclear power stations, nuclear chemical plants, defence nuclear facilities, nuclear safety research, decommissioning and strategy.

Also, end users are often not professionally advised on how to meet their specific energy needs. In 2004 HSE won a prosecution against Thames Trains for breaches of Section 2 and 3 of the Health and Safety at Work etc Act relating to driver training.

HSE Timeline

The reason for the low EI in the sector is due to the epileptic power supply and non-availability of grid supply to the rural communities of the country where about 70 % of the entire population reside. Sixteen people were killed and 28 injured whilst taking part in an evening visit at the site.
