Fiction Book Review: The Mamur Zapt and the Donkey

A proud constable guarded it jealously.

The Donkey

Owen had better unravel it quickly or else. When he became the Mamur Zapt, he had taken charge of a large information network that had been set up by the Ottomans before the British had taken it over.

Michael Pearce The Donkey

Perhaps it helps that I've been to and love Egypt. Hands reached out at McPhee from all sides.

They offered some to Mahmoud as he squatted beside them. Are they intended as deliberately symbolic blows at the British? Everyone out for their tea.

Mamur Zapt

McPhee came down the steps of the terrace to meet him. His uncle suffered from some disability? Read Full Overview First Sentence: Owen arrived at the hotel shortly afterward. His friend is an old man with sticks.

The Mamur Zapt and the donkey

The restaurant was a circular tray, about a yard and a half across, with rings of bread stuck on nails all round the rim and little blue-and-white china bowls filled with various kinds of sauces and pickles taking up most of the middle, the rest being devoted to the unpromising part of meat hashed up in batter. His uncle liked to have someone perpetually by him whom he could call on for support.

Mamur Zapt

In the warm air the perfumes gathered and lingered almost overwhelmingly.
