Parish History

Her mother's maiden name was Macniece. They were all baptised in Magheralin in Co Down. Information has recently come to light that James bought and worked a farm in Marnoo East, Victoria, Australia.

Family History County Antrim Smaller Villages 1

Their one son Robert who went to Scotland and married Jessie Kinniburgh was my grandfather. Also their descendents in Liverpool and Manchester. I know they lived at moycraig mosside and I think some of their ancestors may still live there.

1851 Irish Census Fagments for County Antrim, Aghalee

I would be grateful for any information regarding the family or area around this time.

Gravestone transcripts for Antrim: Irish Ancestors

If anyone can help me make this connection for my sons I would be mst happy.

Glens Of Antrim Historical Society

Feeney, I think he said, lived next door to the cottage, amazing on the fiddle and made us a lovely cup of tea and very welcome. Would love to glean further information.

Parish History

Their three sons were born William at Cloverhill Ballynafeagh, Charles at Larkhill, and Johnston at Drumafivey, before they all emigrated to the USA then Canada. I knew that one of them hailed from Culleybackey, and now find that it is nearby. Sister Margaret Maggie was known as widow BELL and living in Glenarm in 1959.
