Review of the Expanded Public Works Programme in Gauteng, 2009

Under-spending and a need to roll over funds is therefore very common among Public Works components or departments. In another province tensions between the administrative and political head of a department have had to be mediated by the Provincial Service Commission.

RADIO 702 BLOGGER

These are freedom fighters that chose to die standing, rather than on their knees begging for mercy from the oppressor. The Tender Board overruled the department. The management of government vehicles is inefficient in some provinces.

Provincial government spending: Education and health

It can take up to five months from decision by a department to make a purchase to the actual order being placed. In one province, there was an estimated R 50 million fraud per annum in the use of its provincial government vehicles.

Gauteng: Gauteng continues to deliver basic services to meet the challenges of a growing population

National government and the province have pledged R1. This results in the DGs authority being seriously weakened and in the lack of co-ordination within the provincial administration.

These negative effects become very serious when the central components Corporate Services, Finance lack sufficient skills and expertise. We have established 390 school food gardens with 172 in Tshwane, 103 in the West Rand and 115 in Ekurhuleni.

Gauteng often a victim of its own success

It is in this spirit that I would like to urge the Nelson Mandela children, who were born in 1994 and who are turning 18 this year and will be casting their vote for the first time in 2014 to pick up the baton because the future is theirs. She knew this was the cross she had to bear until all the children of South Africa were free. We will expand this programme for 15 182 children to access services through this model.

MEC Nandi Mayathula

Introduction What has happened in the Public Service since 1994 The government is changing the way public services at provincial level are provided in many ways since April 1994. There is no well developed action plan. During the amalgamation process staff in various provinces complained of a great deal of down time on the OpenNet system which demoralised staff.
