El Alaméin (1953)

Communications failed and the forward infantry elements ended up digging in well short of their objective. And it woke the world up to the Holocaust. We all realise that for armour to attack a wall of guns sounds like another , it is properly an infantry job.

Battle of El Alamein

What a lot of kit! On October 30 the order came for Brister and Durkee and the rest of the 7th Armoured to move north. Hampshire Police, who last night closed off a road, say a mandatory referral has been made to the Independent Officer for Police Conduct IOPC and that officers have attended a property in nearby Enham Alamein as part of this investigation 'They are likely to see a continued police presence in these areas while we investigate the circumstances. Operation Lightfoot alluded to the infantry attacking first.

Erwin Rommel's last offensive in North Africa

Speaking of Mr Nash, the resident said: 'I know the guy that got shot. A further 20 miles or so to the south is the Qattara Depression, a steep-sided subterranean area that is impassable for tanks. Tom was in 'D' company and during 'Operation Lightfoot' it lost more than half its strength.

Battle of El Alamein

Eight hundred and eighty two guns fired approximately 529,000 shells.
