Grand Union Canal Walk

One boatman, unable to pay his way, murdered Jack and his spirit reputedly lingers to this day. There are some good views through the trees, but once they start getting their leaves, I imagine all the views will be obscured. The path will take you through a residential area and an unattractive industrial estate for ~500m.

Grand Union Canal

It would be idiotic and presumptuous to hold these stretches of waterway to some pristine standard when they were in effect the main thoroughfare and means of transport for much of the industrial revolution.
