It is not uncommon for both men and women to marry and divorce several times in the course of their marital careers. The hills and marshes of eastern Ceram shelter a Veddoid people, the Bonfia, who are shy, unwarlike, and very primitive in culture. Maize, vegetables, and fruits are raised in considerable variety.

Operating out of this base and sailing under the direction of Malay pilots who knew the seas of the Indies, they succeeded by 1521 in setting up trading posts in the Moluccas or Spice Islands at Tidore, Ternate, and Banda. The scores of Indonesian languages, although nearly all of them belong to this single stock, are mutually incomprehensible--the range of variation being comparable to that within the Indo-European languages of Europe.
