Welcome to Our Town

Around the age of 55, I discovered I could no longer trust myself to read certain poems to my students without the risk of tears.

Our Town — Artistry

Patriotism, as expressed in a number of ways whether in the heart silently, or visibly in pageants, parades or a very popular fireworks tradition dating back to 1922, has flourished here in peacetime as well as throughout two world wars.

A Plot Summary of Our Town

Ouray County was a place where the family could live a relaxed, normal life, where their daughter could wait tables at the local pizza joint if she wanted to, where they could ride horses in the Labor Day parade.

A Plot Summary of Our Town

Councilor Ellen Hunter said the Streetscape project had been scaled back by one million dollars and stated that the CDOT RAMP was a one-time funding opportunity that would go away.
