Content Theories of Motivation

Varying needs ERG Theory recognizes that the order of importance of the three categories may vary for each individual depending on the circumstances experienced by the individual and also how the individual perceives the circumstances. They include such needs as the need for achievement, for love, and for affiliation see. We strive to make the need disappear.

Edupebias: Alderfer's Existence

As you would expect, high-nAff people are very sociable. However, another employee who is trying to satisfy social needs may resent being praised by upper management in front of peers if the praise sets the individual apart from the rest of the group.

ERG Theory of Motivation

The moment one need takes dominance over the others; the ERG Model begins to breakdown and the quality of the professional setting decays.
