Further, Galluci argued that it was a realistic outcome for a process that was only designed to manage the immediate crisis over North Korea's drive to enrich plutonium and was never envisioned as a permanent fix-all for North Korea's desire to become a nuclear power.

Ole Elgström

However, neither the Kearny incident nor an attack on the changed public opinion as much as Roosevelt hoped they might. Consequently, the North-South dialogue exposed more of confrontation rather than co-operation. Yet, for over a decade, development cooperation policy in the EU and the UK has been moving towards an international cooperation agenda where national interests are more clearly on the table, and where development cooperation is seen, planned and implemented as an integrated part of foreign policy.

Aid effectiveness

That annoyed Indian nationalist leaders, though most of those leaders were in British prisons for the duration because they would not support the war against Japan.
