QuarkImmedia

Conclusions QuarkImmedia does not interpret or create HTML code; however, QuarkImmedia Viewer does intelligently handle HTML documents it encounters on the Internet. This feature is essential to guarantee predictable output in PDF-based workflows.

Free Desktop Publishing Software for Windows

Add a calculated field You can add a field that displays a value that is calculated from other data in the same table. There are no additional planning steps if the application uses claims-based authentication. Audio in QuarkImmedia Internet projects is streamed, or played in real time; the proprietary streaming technology does not require a special server.
