Susan Elizabeth Howe

Howe's interests include contemporary American poetry, women's literature and modern and contemporary drama.

Lula Greene Richards

Another strand of my work is about the natural world. She has been a Utah Arts Council Artist-in-Residence, UAC Artist Grant recipient, and prize-winner in the UAC Original Writing Competition.

Susan Elizabeth Howe: AML Lifetime Achievement Award

Her plays include Burdens of Earth, Voices of the Sisters, and A Dream for Katie.

Mormon Poetry (29 books)

I always wish there were three of me, so that I could meet all the responsibilities I need to meet.

Discoveries: Two Centuries of Poems by Mormon Women

Greene began writing poetry as a young girl and there is evidence that she wrote poetry at age fourteen. She has just completed a second collection of poems with Florida poet Terri Witek, To Lie with a Landscape forthcoming. No matter the subject, she always introduced cogent and historically relevant insights to her discussion, garnered not just from close reading and exacting research, but also from numerous study abroad programs she directed in London.
