György Lukács

It is for others to judge the extent to which I have met it.

Mannheim, Karl 1893

After his emigration, Mannheim's interest turned largely toward the problem which was posed by the rise of Nazism, namely, how democracy in a period of mass movements could be prevented from sliding into totalitarian dictatorship.

Karl Mannheim and Hungarian Marxism by Joseph Gabel

So many times I found that historiographical problems came down to epistemological problems, which in turn came down to ontological ones.

Mannheim, Karl 1893

While a minister in Nagy's revolutionary government, Lukács also participated in trying to reform the Hungarian Communist Party on a new basis.
