PAT OF SILVER BUSH & MISTRESS PAT (Complete Series) on Apple Books

Her life is comfortable, but she hates change of any kind, and she has to struggle against loving her home, Silver Bush, more than she loves people. Montgomery went on to publish 20 novels as well as 530 short stories, 500 poems, and 30 essays. Dad and Sid still work hard, and hire a great new hand named Tillytuck.

Mistress Pat

Was she to have a rival in the story telling art? He's gone gallivanting and it's a cold night and mebbe a long drive home.

Mistress Pat (Pat, #2) by L.M. Montgomery

In one hand he carried a huge, bulging old Gladstone bag and in the other what was evidently a fiddle done up in a flannel case.

Mistress Pat; A Novel of Silver Bush by Montgomery, L. M.: near fine (1935)

Cuddles, what about a run back to the Secret Field before sunset? Just Dog, shelf, three tin pails, two stewpans, and a dozen glass jars of Judy's baked damson preserves all crashed down the cellar steps together! Pat always felt that the field knew it was beautiful and was happy in its knowledge.

Pat of Silver Bush and Mistress Pat by L. M. Montgomery, Paperback

You have cat prose everywhere! She is not as brilliant as Anne or Emily, nor as exciting as the Story Girl, nor does she have as many adventures as Marigold.

Pat of Silver Bush and Mistress Pat by L. M. Montgomery, Paperback

David eventually breaks the engagement and states to Pat's protestations that Hilary Gordon, who has been away studying architecture, is the reason he will never have Pat's affections. Before one of the paralysed trio could stir the door was opened and Tillytuck walked into the room.

The Complete Pat of Silver Bush Series: Pat of Silver Bush / Mistress Pat by L.M. Montgomery

For some reason, Montgomery let it drag on too long.
