Chronological List of English Bible Translations

Love is like heavy feathers, bright smoke, cold fire, sick health, waking sleep, the opposite of what it is! We are fortunate in having a contemporary copy two such copies survived to modern times, but one was damaged in the Cotton library fire of 1731 and later all but destroyed by fire while at a bindery.

King Alfred's Preface to Gregory's Pastoral Care

Hamlet No, I never gave you anything.

Chronological List of English Bible Translations

It is important to divide the sentences into their constituent clauses and phrases so that you can make sense of them. Over time, four major dialects of Old English gradually emerged: Northumbrian in the north of England, Mercian in the midlands, West Saxon in the south and west, and Kentish in the southeast.
