Under the yoke

Marya swallowed convulsively, thick saliva blocking her throat.

Under the yoke; a romance of Bulgarian liberty : Vazov, Ivan Minchov, 1850

I was looking forward to seeing the characters develop, but they only played minor roles, if any. .

Under the yoke; a romance of Bulgarian liberty : Vazov, Ivan Minchov, 1850

Great story, well defined characters and a complex, detailed alternate history.

What does under the yoke mean?

Tell me, Chantal, do you know what in loco parentis means? A hypothetical slavery-based, war-glorifying, ruthless society -- that thrives.

National Romanticism: The Formation of National Movements

On his side is proverbial philosophy, a galaxy of invisible saints and sages, and the half-developed consciousness and professions of everybody. . She was used to austerity, would not have chosen a religious vocation if comfort were essential to her, but she could feel her skin drinking in the softness and warmth, eyes flooding with the color and brightness.

UNDER THE YOKE

The woman lolling there was the first Draka she had ever seen not in some type of uniform; she was wearing low tooled boots, loose burgundy trousers, a long blouse-shirt over a stomach that showed the seventh month of pregnancy. I have to start writing the reviews in a word processor and pasting them here. Saw she had good bones from the start, an' spirit too.

Under

. In the black tunic and trousers of garrison uniform, with a peaked cap folded and thrust through his shoulder-strap; Marya understood just enough of the Domination's military insignia to know he was a Merarch, roughly a colonel. Even worse, the author doesn't use it consistently so characters are dropping in and out of it, which makes it harder to ignore.
