Korean Americans

This has been promoted by Marxism—Leninism as the means to achieve women's emancipation. I also historically trace the persecution and criminalization of draft evaders and conscientious objectors during this period to reveal how non-compliance to state enforced social norms and the normalized perceptions of militarized identity and hegemonic masculinity came to draw powerful boundaries demarcating social delinquency and cultural deviancy. This article summarizes these debates—between nationalists and Marxists, and also within the Marxist milieu—and links them to Marxist intellectual developments elsewhere.
