Other states have interpreted the just compensation provision in an identical manner and have used such an interpretation as footing for recognition of condemnation blight as a proper cause of action.

The Reconstruction Amendments Facts, Worksheets & The Union Victory

The 1862 tax law had not exempted federal salaries, and the Treasury Department had deducted the amount of the tax from the paychecks of federal employees. On February 16, 1863, Roger B. Taney, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, ruled in Ex parte Millard that the tax was constitutional. Some of these records document miscellaneous and regular revenue taxes, mostly those imposed on the retail sale of liquor and the manufacture of tobacco products.
