2011 National Conference Program

What is common to all is that—no matter how fundamentalist their program of renovation had been—they were forced to get entangled with a complex dynamism of generations, parallel claims, institutions, and competing discourses.

Kirtland Bibliography

Like tribal and communal property, it is also based on a community; but the directly producing class standing over against it is not, as in the case of the ancient community, the slaves, but the enserfed small peasantry. Note: These slides were digitized. All over the country poor squatters and cottagers, the victims of enclosure and heavy taxation, were ready for desperate remedies.

Centre for Jewish Studies, University of Manchester

It is characteristic of the period that the largest measure of repression was applied not against those authors that tackled some of the politically more ambivalent figures, but rather was aimed at a monograph on leader from the 1919 Soviet Republic of Hungary, Béla Kun. This time, Jacobson joined Hochberg in the talks but these were inconclusive, though only muted opposition to Jewish immigration was voiced at the conference.
