The Church's Central Role in the Coming of the Kingdom of God

The Vicissitudes of Theocracy in Israel. Situational Analysis According to the Bible, Jesus Christ is the King Lord of the Kingdom of God. This was a serious charge, as in Jacksonian America, anything which smacked of was immediately suspect and deemed an anti-republican threat to the country.

What Is the Kingdom of God According to the Bible?

In , Jesus teaches that one is to receive the like a small child. Modernity has as a basic assumption the aggrandizement of the Ego of Man where each man is elevated to a level approaching divinity. They smack of injustice, don't they? Untreated, the trauma goes on to create yet greater problems.

Teodemocracy

The Kingdom of God is not a democracy.

Theodemocracy

There, only the private light of self is allowed to shine, no other being permitted to eclipse it. When these attitudes and carnal concerns are being harbored at every junction in our spiritual journey together, how can we expect our King to pour out His Spirit and Power on us? These have been developed, refined, and formalized. And when Paul wanted to go into the assembly, the disciples would not let him.

Democracy in the Kingdom of God

However, the kingdom of God is not an actual physical place. Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another. This man openly opposes immigration, social security, health care, environmental protectionism, and banking regulations aimed at protecting the interests of the working poor.
